

ICARUS – Track 6.

GOOD TO GO

---

Stumblin' blind in a furnace of emotion,
Close enough to feel our bodies burn,
Been holdin' back, but holdin' on to something,
Starin' at the point of no return... will we ever learn?

But oh – now I'm believin',
Oh – I finally know,
So long, far too long in coming home,
Now we're good to go.

Been fightin' ourselves 'til teeth and nails are shattered,
How do people just go on like that?
Tryin' to rectify all the shit inside us,
We smolder and hurt as we choke on the words as we turn our backs,
We keep comin' back.

But oh – now I'm believin',
Oh – I finally know,
So long, far too long in coming home,
Now we're good to go.

We don't need any reason to,
Get back like we used to do,
We started something we need to finish for ourselves,
I don't know the reason why,
We keep backtracking,
But you can dance in my shoes if you don't believe me.

Oh – now I'm believin',
And oh - I finally know,
So long - far too long in coming home,
Now we're good to go...
(Oh now I'm believing) Close enough to feel our bodies burn.
(Oh I finally know.)
